Hi All,

Attached is a "status" paper that is comprehensive (5 pages). It isn't a briefing paper but it is up to date for Dec 2012. My thought is that we can take bits of this when we need to create a briefing paper that is focused on one or more of the pieces of BDCP. You can put it in G drive for everyone to access.

I've got a folder on G drive for briefing papers. Last version of this BDCP one is dayed June. So if Erin's got a more current one, or a different version (I think we had a long version and short version at one point), you ought to add to that folder.
